

x

y

θ

A diagram showing two green vectors originating from a common point at the bottom left. One vector points upwards and to the right, labeled with the italicized letter x at its tip. The other vector points upwards and to the left, labeled with the italicized letter y at its tip. The angle between the two vectors is labeled with the Greek letter θ near the origin.